BLOWN INTO INCH BITS

Shocking Accident On Island of Maui.

TWO JAPANESE LABORERS KILLED

They Tried to Withdraw a Charge of Giant Powder With Dis- astrous Results.

MAUI, June 8.—A shocking catastrophe occurred at Kailua, Huelo, on the Spreckels ditch during the morning of the 7th, by which two Japanese laborers were horribly mangled and killed.
Mauka of the residence of the superintendent of the ditch at Kailua is a water hole, separated from the main ditch by a small rise of solid rock. A gang of four Japanese were blasting a side-ditch through this rock to the principal waterway. A hole had been drilled and powder, caps and two fuses properly placed. Having lighted the fuses and waited at a safe distance beyond the proper length of time for the explosion to take place, two Japanese, Uchiyama and Aomi, returned and extracted the fuses and caps and attempted to withdraw the giant powder, one and one-half sticks of it. The supposition is that in doing this, they used a sledge hammer and four-foot drill, and that the concussion caused by a blow of the hammer exploded the powder, the effect of which was to smash them to pieces. One of the men lived a half hour and the other one a half hour.
The Japanese who is supposed to have held the sledge hammer had a big hole in the center of his forehead.
The bodies and lower extremities of both were blown into atoms. What remained of the two unfortunates were found fifty feet away from the scene of the blasting.
Dr. Stith of Spreckelsville and Dr.
Saga of Paia were summoned, but of course could render no assistance.
Deputy Sheriff Kalama was also immediately called from his court duties at Wailuku, and swore in a jury, which will probably sit in about a week's time.
A strange incident of the affair is that a third Japanese standing but five feet away from the place of explosion was entirely uninjured. A probable explanation of this is that one of the unlucky men shielded him from flying pieces of rock.

NEWS NOTES OF MAUI ISLAND

A General Round of Social and and Miscellaneous Festivities.

MAUI, June 8.—The dancing party given by the young men of Spreckelsville during the evening of the 1st was a great success, the large lanai of Mr. W. J.
Lowrie being filled with dancers to its fullest capacity. Trains which were run before and after the social event brought a large number of guests from Wailuku, Kahului and Paia. The Wailuku Quintet Club provided excellent music, and now and then during the evening some inspiring "two-step" pieces were played by Miss Clara Lowrie and Mr. Geo. Schrader. W.
O. Aiken was floor manager. The dancing ceased at midnight, when ice cream, cake and other dainty refreshments were served.

AFTER CALABASHES.
Recently kua calabash collectors have canvassed Maui most thoroughly. One, a Chinese, has just completed a circuit of the island, purchasing as a speculation all the old kua calabashes that he found for sale. These old hand-made bowls of koa he intends to restore and polish and then sell in Honolulu. Hawaiians sell these old relics for from $3 to $8 each, while the speculator will ask for them, when restored, from $30 to $50.

AN AFTERNOON RECEPTION.
During the 7th a most delightful afternoon tea was given by Mrs. H. A. Bal-win of Hamakua in honor of several ladies—Mrs. Fred. Potter, Mrs. S. E. Damon, Mrs. H. P. Baldwin and Miss Lillie Patty. It was the most largely attended social event of the kind in many months.
Invitations were issued to forty-five ladies of Makawao district, most of which were accepted. The program of the afternoon's entertainment consisted of a book-guessing game in which Mrs. W. E.
Beckwith won first prize; a piano solo by Miss Kate Watson; a vocal solo by Mrs.
J. J. Hair; a vocal solo by Mrs. P. F.
Baldwin; a reading by Mrs. W. E. Beckwith, and a Scotch song by Mrs. S. E.
Damon. Between the reading and the song most delicious refreshments were served.

MAUNALO SEMINARY.
Maunalo Seminary, of Paia, will close on Wednesday, the 13th. This year the intention is to show the regular classroom exercises interspersed with singing.
There will be a sale of children's dresses made by the girls of the school, and a tree-planting ceremony will end the exercises of the day. The teachers are most desirous that all parents of the pupils and friends of the school will be present.

MISCELLANEOUS.
During the 6th and 7th the only case tried by the Circuit Court at Wailuku was that of Julia Thomas vs. Joe Emms-ley, breach of promise. Kaneakua for the plaintiff and Hons and Johnson for the defendant. The jury awarded $1,000 damages.

The F. F. Baldwins and Mrs. S. E. Damon have been at Olinda House during the week.
By Tuesday's Claudine Mesdames H.
P. Baldwin and C. H. Dickey came to Maui.
During Sunday, the 2d, Rev. Dr. E. G.
Beckwith preached an excellent sermon in the Paia Church on the subject, "The Hunted Child and the Haunted King," referring, of course, to Christ and Herod.
The Grand Jury is busy investigating illicit liquor selling in Lahaina. Between sixty and seventy witnesses will be called, so it is stated.
Company I, of Wailuku, will give a lu-au in Iao valley on June 11th. The soldier-boys will appear in uniform.
The Oahu polo team is now expected on Maui July 15th, and will play with the Maui boys on the 19th.
The operetta, "Gypsy Queen," given in the Wailuku school hall during the evening of the 6th was a great success. The building was crowded with spectators, all the reserve seats being sold. All the court people and residents of Wailuku, Wai-kapu and Wailhee were present.

THE HAIR BRUSH.
Breeds Dandruff, Which Causes Falling Hair and Finally Baldness.
Prof. Unna, Hamburg, Germany, European authority on skin diseases, says that dandruff is as contagious as any other malevolent disease and that one common source of the spread of dandruff is the use of the same hair brush by different persons. The way to avoid catching dandruff or any other disease from another's brush is to insist on the use of Newbro's Herpicide.
It not only kills the dandruff germ, but it is also an antiseptic that will prevent the catching of any disease whatever through contagion of another's brush.

THE JUNE TERM OF MAUI COURT

Judge Kalua Will Sit in All Six of the Cases.

MAUI, June 8.—On the 4th at 10 a. m. the June term of the Circuit Court, Hon.
J. W. Kalua presiding, opened at the Wailuku court house, a multitude of jurors, witnesses, lawyers, sheriffs, policemen and others being in attendance.
Judge Kalua announced that J. H.
Welch was appointed as bailiff, and that an assistant bailiff for the term would be appointed later on. He also declared that the following were officials of the court: George A. Davis, Deputy Attorney General; P. McMahon, stenographer; James H. Harbottle, Japanese Interpreter; Li Cheung, Chinese Interpreter, and John Richardson, Esq., Hawaiian Interpreter. Upon calling the roll of jurors the clerk, J. N. K. Keola, it was shown that Henry Gibson, a Grand Juror, was absent, and R. A. Wadsworth, a Petit Juror, had not put in appearance.
Each was fined $5.
The Grand Jury was excused until the morning of June 6th. Upon examination of the calendar, it was revealed that Judge Kalua was disqualified in six cases. Judge W. S. Edings is expected from Kona on Monday evening, the 10th, and after his arrival will preside in the hall of the Circuit Court and immediately try the six cases.
The only case tried during the day was that of You Lee vs. August Reimann, assault; appeal from District Court of Lahaina. Inasmuch as Reimann did not appear, the jury had no difficulty in awarding $111.93 to You Lee, as the amount of a store bill due him from Reimann. George Hons, Esq., was the attorney for You Lee.
It was whispered about during the day that the present Grand Jurors have a tedious ordeal before them in an investigation of illicit liquor selling in Lahaina.
Rumor has it that it requires several sheets of foolscap to contain the names of witnesses to be summoned in the matter. During the reading of the calendar it was noted that Attorneys Hons and Kaneakua had charge of most of the cases.
The new Maui hotel was well filled with guests. A practical argument for making Wailuku the county seat in place of Lahaina is that the former town has three good hotels—The Maui, The Windsor and Schrader's—while the latter place has none; that is, no fully-appointed public house.
